Whooping cough and measles are prevailing in Douglas county

Tents and overshoes have been forwarded to the soldiers in the Modoc country

The Jefferson flouring mills have it is reported, suspended operations for the season

A plank road has been built from the business part of Oakland to the railroad depot

Wm H Holmes and O P Mason of Multnomah county have been appointed Notaries Public

Cupid reigned in Polk county during 1872 and 103 couples bowed their necks to the yoke of matrimony

A heavy gale of wind prevailed on Yaquina Bay last Monday night Trees were felled and general havoc made along the river

The weather in Eastern Oregon is reported as being very pleasant, causing a number of mining companies to resume operations again

Mr A Palmer, who lives on an island in the Wallamet above Corvallis, recently killed two wild hogs, one of which weighed 500 pounds

The motive power of the grist mill at Prairie City, Grant county is water from a hot spring which prevents any stoppage from a freeze up

Arrangements have been made by Bishop Morris of this diocese, by which the Episcopal denomination at Jefferson will have regular service

The Carlyle Literary Society of Corvallis has decided, "that our public lands should not be sold or given away for other than agricultural purposes "

The Commercial Reporter speaks of a Turbine waterwheel at Lebanon " which cost $2 000,000 " Rather a costly wheel or, more likely, a careless proof reader

The Corvallis Gazette says " It is now nearly the middle of January and farmers in this part of the valley have not yet commenced feeding their stock "

The introduction of testimony in the case of Elliott vs the The Railroad Companies, at Salem, has been closed, and the argument will be opened this Monday morning at 9 o'clock

Major W V Rinehart Postmaster at Canyon City Grant county, issued during the year 1872 orders to the amount of $21 000, being an average of $13 23 for each money order

Governor Grover has not yet examined the report of the Board of Equalization, and so the public have not been favored with information as to how much they have been " equalized "

The dwelling house of Harry Hall at Canyon City, took fire on the 29th ultimo and was entirely consumed, except the basement or cellar story The contents of the building were all saved

Mr Wallace has discovered in southern Oregon, a sandal or ancient shoe, which measured fifteen inches in length and four inches across the ball of the foot "There were giants in those days "

Two men who thought they could find a better country than Oregon, left Polk county a few months since to settle in Texas They are now on their way back and write that there is no place like Oregon

Two remonstrances against a tax levy to aid in building the State University have already been filed in the County Clerk's office in Lane county, for the consideration of the County Court They are not numerously signed

The Eugene Journal of January 11th has this "The ground has not been covered with snow in this part of the valley this winter, and the grass is as green as it is in May or June " Do you believe this, ye snow bound folks of the East?

On Wednesday last the stage was unable to go but a few miles below the city, on account of high water in Stewart's creek On Thursday it reached Rainwater's, about a mile above Albany, from whence the mails were transported to that city in a skiff

Mr S Case, sub Indian agent on the Alsea reservation thinks the continued war dances of the "wards of the Government' at that place bode no good, that some steps for the protection of the settlers on the Bay, and all isolated settlements ought to be taken at once

The following officers for the Dalles Congregational Sunday School were elected for the year 1873 Samuel L Brooks, Superintendent, Arthur W Coffin, Secretary, Mrs E F Moody, Treasurer, Wm Adams, Librarian; Mrs S L Brooks, organist W E Sylvester, chorister.

The officers of Highland Farmers' Club, of Marion, for 1873, are, R C Geer, President; K L Hibbard and L F. Mascher, Vice Presidents, T W Davenport Secretary and B A Leonard Treasurer At its last meeting the club discussed the question 'Resolved, That raising grain for the market is not the best policy for farmers in the highland district "

A prominent farmer of Benton county writes that the southern section of that county has 50 000 bushels of wheat which it is holding for the price to advance to one dollar per bushel He adds "We farmers look to the OREGONIAN S commercial reports for the true state of the market and find them invariably correct, both as to the home and foreign markets."

The schooner Louise arrived at Yaquina Bay last Thursday, five days from San Francisco loaded with merchandise for Messrs Sawtell, Wright Abbey & Simpson, Kline & Co She will immediately load with lumber and potatoes and return Potatoes are worth 50 cents per bushel on the Bay and 90 cents in San Francisco Freight to San Francisco, 30 cents on the bushel, leaving a small profit to shippers

The Tidealer says "A large portion of the Modocs of the Klamath reservation have left many of whom will no doubt join the band of Captain Jack The agent Mr Applegate has applied to the settlers at Linkville for assistance Some persons are disposed to censure the troops for their inaction It is difficult at this distance to form a correct judgment on this subject, but we have confidence that the movements will be as prompt as the circumstances will admit

Among other improvements made in Oregon during the year 1872 we find a notice of the Lebanon Mills in the Republican of last Saturday These mills are situated in Linn county about 11 miles southeast of Albany, and began to manufacture flour during last August The owners Messrs Elkins Bros are said to have introduced the latest improved machinery, and spared no expense in building this mill so as to cause the flour to take rank amongst the best manufactured in Oregon The mill is run by a Leffel & Myers iron double turbine wheel 56 inches in diameter and costing $2,000 000 There are three run of French burrs The capacity of the mill is 20,000 barrels per year The reputation of the wheat grown in the Santiam bottom, and which is used in the manufacture of flour at the Lebanon mills, is such as will cause the flour to be sought for by all acquainted with its superior quality Messrs Corbitt & Macleay are the agents in this city

Another tribe of Indians have petitioned the great father at Washington for the necessaries of life This time they want velocipedes to chase the bison over the plain, and a few bustles for the squaws to carry pappooses in while on the march

DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional

WASHINGTON Jan 10 —In the Senate the [illegible] presented a large number of memorials remonstrating against the passage of Sumner's oblivion resolution

The consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill was resumed the question being on the amendment of Stewart for the appointment of inspectors of Indian affairs which was adopted It provides for not over five inspectors at $3 000 salary and traveling expenses to visit and examine twice a year each and every Superintendent [illegible] inspect books and papers and inquire concerning all matters connected with it with power to suspend any Superintendent or Agent and fill the place temporarily subject to the approval of the President, and to have power to institute legal proceedings against Agents etc

The appropriation for the Yankton Sioux is reduced from $1 500 000 to $900 000 Senate adjourned

In the House a long discussion occurred on the amendments to increase the appropriation for the Bureau of Education The clause which formed the amendment was rejected—ayes, 74 noes 78

An item in the Appropriation for the Agricultural Bureau caused another debate, which moved an increase for this item for the purchase and distribution of seeds from $60 000 to $75 000

The item appropriating $400 000 to pay the judgment of the Court of Claims was opposed by Smith of New York in a speech in which he denounced the payment of large sums of moneys to ex rebels as is being done He offered an amendment prohibiting the payment of any part of the sum on judgments for property seized, captured or abandoned before July 4th 1865

A Subsidy for China Steamers

NEW YORK Jan 10—The Washington dispatches say a subsidy of $1 000 000 per annum for the Pacific Mail Company s China service is agreed to by the House Appropriation Committee to take effect July 1st

Suit for Revenue

Initiatory proceedings have begun in the United States Court against Phelps Dodge & Co to recover $1 000 000 A capias has been issued commanding the Marshal to take defendants and keep them to answer for the amount of the suit The Deputy Marshal is authorized to serve the capias, but further proceedings are held in abeyance

EASTERN STATES

Rescued—Snow Bound

MILWAUKEE Jan 11 —Reports from the Iowa Division of Milwaukee and St Paul Railroad says Sleighs succeeded in reaching the train snow bound between McGregor and Austin The snow is packed so tight that snow plows have no effect and will have to be shoveled out, all that can be seen of some trains is here and there the top of the brake protruding above the snow and nothing but the top of the smoke stack of one engine, marks the whereabouts of the same Thermometer ranges 25° below zero The wind is blowing a perfect gale. Drivers who drove teams for relief were badly frozen

The Political Muddle

NEW ORLEANS Jan 11—The Fusion Legislature is fully organized Six Senators from the Pinchback Legislature appeared and took seats, an event which creates a lively stir in political circles Fusionists assert that other Senators will desert Pinchback to-day, and probably break up the quorum The seceding Senators publish an address to the people giving their reasons for the desertion of Pinchback his illegal acts and assumption of arbitrary powers in organizing a legislature by unseating members who were well known to be legally elected and putting defeated candidates in their places in bribing the returning Board with fat offices to make false returns of election in order to secure the election of Kellogg to the United States Senate

A Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK Jan 11 —The express train from Albany to New York, on which Governor Dix was a passenger, narrowly escaped being thrown down an embankment twenty feet high yesterday afternoon The engine, tender and baggage car were thrown off the track by a broken rail sending the engine plowing its way a distance of fifty yards where it was suddenly stopped and all on board escaped injury

Stokes' Bill of Exceptions

NEW YORK Jan 11 —The bill of exceptions in Stokes' case has been completed and will soon be arranged before Judge Boardman If he does not grant a new trial the bill may be taken before every one of the thirty-one Judges of the Supreme Court Stokes was much dejected yesterday

An Alleged Swindle

NEW YORK Jan 11 —The Journal of Commerce editorially calls the attention of the press of the country to an attempt being made to again revive the patent straw paper swindle in Congress The dodge now attempted is in a proposal to amend the patent laws now before Congress The amendment has been read twice and in a few days will be put upon its passage The effect of its passage will be to add one cent to every pound of paper purchased by newspaper publishers

Homicide is Censurable.

The coroner's jury in the Center street disaster to day rendered a verdict that the victims died from suffocation from fire caused by carelessness and censured severely the use of benzine in such establishments They censure Dunn & Co for this and Anderson and Archer for failing to inform their employees of the fire escape

Miss Anthony's Case

BUFFALO, Jan 10 —Susan B Anthony was brought before Judge Hall in the U S Court to day in charge of the Deputy U S Marshal on a writ of habeas corpus after consultation by the counsel the hearing of the case was postponed until the 21st inst , at the court to be held at Albany

CUMBERLAND Mo Jan 10 —Wm Craig colored, convicted of rape on an aged lady, was hanged in the jail yard to day

The Case of the Notables

NEW YORK, Jan 10 —The jury in Tweed s case is completed the case is set for next Wednesday

There is said to be, in the region of the Colorado river, a mountain of solid salt, five hundred feet in height and extending fifteen miles The width of the stratum is not known, but it has been penetrated through a cave to a distance of three miles The discovery is reported by a non professional man, and until proper scientific investigation is made, it cannot be known whether this cave is a fissure penetrating the stratum itself or whether its walls are merely an excrescence from the great mass. But be that as it may, the mountain would appear to furnish an answer to the Biblical question 'If the salt hath lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted ? '

The Utah correspondent of the Idaho Statesman says The Christmas holiday developed the fact to the public that the schools for the instruction of the young are vigorously at work sowing the seeds of learning St Marks (Episcopal) is said to be doing a good work , and the Methodists, Congregationalists and Catholics have each prosperous schools connected with their respective societies. The Mormons have ward schools, but they are of the poorer class, and the Territory is without any system of public instruction An 'apostate' told me a few days since, that some years ago, as a member of the Utah Legislature, he struggled hard to induce that body to provide for a system of common schools, but Brigham objected, and it failed Such is the progressive spirit of Mormonism ! It is a fine illustration of the bigotry and ignorance that prevailed among them."

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 11.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional

WASHINGTON Jan 11 —The House in Committee of the Whole took up the legislative executive and judicial appropriation bill the pending question being on the amendment offered by Smith of New York yesterday, prohibiting the payment of judgments of the court claims for cotton captured before June, 1865, except special appropriations are made for them

Garfield replied to Smith s speech yesterday, repelling the idea that any judgments had been paid by the Secretary of the Treasury except in compliance with the law He cited unanimous decisions of the Supreme Court to the effect that a receipt of pardon relieved the claimant of all disabilities in regard to loyalty, and that whenever the United States Government held property which it has forcibly seized it holds it only as trustee, and must restore it

Smith didn t ask the House to throw itself in the teeth of decisions of the Supreme Court but if the Supreme Court was of the opinion that if a disloyal claimant, like Love of Georgia who was a Confederate Loan Commissioner who had already recovered $474,000, and Lamar, of Savannah were to be paid he submitted that at least it should be on the report of those judgments to Congress, so that Congress and the country should know In the McArdle case Congress had deprived the Supreme Court of jurisdiction. He admonished Congress, the Supreme Court and the administration that the people were behind them determined that loyal people should be paid first

The discussion was continued at length by a large number of members The amendment was finally rejected there being only 35 affirmative votes

Randall offered an amendment providing that no money shall be paid to any railroad company for transportation of mails or troops while such company is in default for interest on bonds issued by the Government

Sargent made a point of order that there was no thing in the bill to which the provision would apply

The Chairman sustained the point of order and it was excluded

An amendment was subsequently offered by Randall who found an item for contingencies in the War Department, and made a point of order against it which was overruled.

Holman moved to amend the amendment by repealing the law under which the Pacific railroad companies were relieved from the necessity of allowing charges against the Government for transportation to be withheld from the amount of interest paid by the Government on bonds given or loaned to the companies

Sargent made a point of order against Holman's amendment It was ruled out of order Holman appealed but the decision was sustained by a large majority

Sargent opposed Randall s Amendment and argued that even if it were adopted it would only be applicable to the item of $12 000 to which it was attached It would not be otherwise binding on the executive He denied that the legislation which relieved the Pacific Railroad Company was got through in a surreptitious manner, as charged by Randall

Holman declared that the section referred to had been read in the House to-day for the first time That the House had known nothing whatever about it Every dollar withheld from the treasury under it had been wrongfully withheld Instead of repealing it indirectly, it should be repealed by direct provision of law blotting it out from the statute book as a measure which was never there rightfully

Beck whose name had been mentioned in connection with the names of Dockey and Logan as on the Committee on Conference, through which the section referred to became law said he did not recollect having signed the Conference report, but expressed the opinion that the section complained of was only carrying out the provisions of the law organizing the Pacific Railroad Companies He suggested that the discussion go over for the present and he should be able to look into the matter The suggestion was concurred in and the Committee rose and adjourned

The Public Schools Again

The investigation of the conduct of J. S. Giltner, one of the Directors of the school district, has proved that the serious charges made against him are true, though there have arisen some collateral matters having questions of veracity. The statement we made on the 8th instant was [illegible] information which we believed to be reliable. At that time we were in possession of a part of the facts subsequently published, but had not then been fully satisfied of their correctness, and therefore withheld them till the next day in order to make a thorough investigation. This we did and gave the result. The Bulletin states upon the alleged authority of Rev. T. L. Eliot that our version of Giltner's conduct in connection with the examination of teachers is incorrect. This surprises us, as that gentleman himself called at our office on the 8th instant, saying he called especially to give us the facts in the case, and declaring the matter ought to be thoroughly sifted. The Bulletin must have misunderstood the Superintendent. From him we derived the particulars published next morning, so far as that branch of the matter was concerned. He also stated to us that the order for the examination on Monday was against his protest, and that it had been agreed between him and Dr. Glenn, the other Director, that in order to satisfy Giltner's demand for a re-examination the teachers who had not been examined Saturday, should be examined privately by him during the week, thus satisfying Giltner and avoiding the humiliation of the teachers. This statement is corroborative of Dr. Glenn's statement that the notice for the teachers to appear was not issued by order of the board, and it is doubtless the truth. Mr. Eliot stated that throughout his official duties in connection with the city schools Giltner's conduct had been a source of continual annoyance to him. That having admitted him, as was certainly polite and proper, to be present at the examination of teachers, Giltner took the liberty of interfering with his examinations, and that he had only borne with his conduct because he thought, under all the circumstances, it was better for the schools that no noise be made about it. He said however he cared less for what Giltner did than for his coarse and offensive manner of doing. After leaving our office Mr. Eliot sent us a note which we still have, requesting us to withhold his name as our authority, but to simply say that we had the facts from 'reliable sources'—reiterating that it was Giltner's offensive manner of conducting himself that he mainly wished to complain of. We withheld his name as requested and should not mention it now, had it not been used as authority for contradicting our statement.

It is not denied that Giltner's written demand for the appearance of the teachers, signed by himself as Chairman of the Board of Directors and purporting to have been issued by order of the Board, was a falsehood. It is not denied that his statement that he acted by order of the Board when he undertook to expel Miss Taylor, was a falsehood. These were the gravest charges made against him, and they are true and provable.

Now as to his conduct at the Harrison Street School. The Bulletin says there is a question of veracity between Dr. Glenn and Giltner. So there is, and this community will not long hesitate in its decision who tells the truth. The oath of ten Giltners, weighed against the simple word of Dr. Glenn, would kick the beam. But Dr. Glenn is supported by others, the Principal of the Harrison Street School among them. The Bulletin says Giltner denies that he used coarse or insulting language towards Miss Taylor, or that he refused to permit her to enter the school room. Both these denials are false and we can prove it, and are ready to enter upon the formal investigation whenever Giltner signifies his disposition to proceed. He refused admission to Miss Taylor as a teacher, and she was only enabled to get in by asking Giltner to permit her to step inside the room a moment to speak to Mr. Pratt, the Principal, and Giltner went into the school room and, in the presence of Mr. Pratt and others, told her she had lied, and used other similar language toward her. This may not be coarse or insulting language to be applied to a lady and a teacher of the common schools—and that in presence of her school and associates—according to Giltner's ideas, but we opine decent people will hardly accept the Giltner standard of refinement. This is additional to his admitted abominable conduct at the same time toward Dr. Glenn because the latter refused to be a party to his outrages.

It is said some of the teachers think well of Giltner. That may be so, but it can hardly be possible that they justify the conduct for which he is now arraigned before this public upon charges direct and specific, to the most of which he interposes no denial. We may as well add, that one of the principal teachers named by the Bulletin as Giltner's admirer has spoken in as strong terms against him as any man in the city to our knowledge—which is susceptible of proof. But it would not matter if some of the teachers, or all of them, did approve of his outrages. They would be outrages still and the logical conclusion from their approval by the teachers would be, not that Giltner was a gentleman nor that his conduct was not a violation of law and shockingly indecent, but—we leave the reader to finish this sentence.

The Oregon City Enterprise says that ever since the commencement of the locks at that place one individual has been continually annoying and harrassing the company with petty claims and assumed rights; that the company have been ready to pay liberally for his pretended rights in order to buy their peace, but still he is not satisfied and has managed in one way and another to cause much inconvenience to the company. It seems almost incredible that such can be the case. The company has always paid for what it got, has spent a very large amount of money in and about Oregon City, and has added very greatly to the taxable property of the county, thus benefitting the place directly and indirectly. The great enterprise it has just completed is one that cannot injure any section of the State, must benefit the entire Wallamet valley, and must be an especial advantage to Clackamas county. It therefore does not appear reasonable that any citizen of that county, however greatly he might dislike the company or any person connected with it, could be base enough to take such a mode of gratifying his private spleen. It is suggested that the individual spoken of thinks by this means to obtain money unjustly from the company. If such is the case, we trust the sequel will show that any persecutions of his will be borne by the company, rather than yield to his demand.

A Washington telegram of the 6th instant has this upon the Hawaiian Island [illegible]:

The President in a conversation on the subject of [illegible] said that in view of [illegible] he thought it was proper that all the facts should be known which are [illegible] [illegible] the Hawaiian Islands to bring [illegible] the [illegible] expressed a desire [illegible] country and [illegible] About the [illegible] died [illegible] our Government [illegible] instructed to send [illegible] Islands [illegible] the rights of American citizens [illegible] should [illegible] under the [illegible] General Schofield [illegible] for the benefit of his health.

This is in accordance with the policy of the Government for a great many years past. The question of annexation has been agitated at different periods before and our Government has never favored the project. A gentleman of this city who has had access to the files of the diplomatic correspondence between the Government and its Commissioners to the Islands assures us that Daniel Webster while Secretary of State wrote the Commissioner then at Honolulu emphatically declaring it not to be the policy of the Government to annex the Islands to the United States, but that it would not permit any other nation to seize them. And our informant says the same policy has been uniformly expressed in the instructions sent to subsequent Commissioners.

There is [illegible] to the New England Society. Among the guests present at its reception, which was held at the Delmonico in New York on the 27th ult., were Hon. E. B. Washburne, Minister to France; Major Gen. W. S. Hancock, U. S. A.; Hon. Wm. F. Havemeyer, Mayor elect; Rev. Dr. Bellows; Gov. Jewell of Connecticut; Hon. Smith Ely, jr., M. C.; ex-Attorney General Hoar; Hon. Wm. M. Evarts; Chief Justice P. Daly; President Barnard of Columbia College; ex-Gov. E. D. Morgan; Judge E. L. Woodruff; Parke Godwin; Ivory Chamberlain; Major General Alex Shaler; ex-Gov. McCormick, M. C., of Arizona; Hon. Erastus Brooks; Gen. Burnside of Rhode Island; James McLean; Homer Morgan; Cyrus W. Field; Moses H. Grinnell; Dorman B. Eaton and D. F. Appleton.

Baron Von Beust has published a letter in the Independence Belge contradicting the statement of Duc de Grammont made public some time since in regard to the position of Austria at the commencement of the Franco-German war. Grammont's statement was that the Emperor of the French engaged in the war with assurances from Austria of the assistance of that nation against the Germans, and he gave what purported to be a note to that effect from the Austrian Government. Von Beust, who was at that time Prime Minister of Austria, not only denies the truth of statement, but says that Austria endeavored to dissuade the French Government from the war, and refused any alliance with the French.

On Saturday, December 28th, about three hundred prominent business men of Buffalo went out to celebrate the opening of a new railway terminating at Emporium, 120 miles from Buffalo. The dispatch says this road opens up a wild and hitherto inaccessible region of country abounding in coal, iron and timber. It is estimated the coal in Camden county near the terminus of the road would not be exhausted in a thousand years, if a thousand tons per day were removed.

The fortunes of war seem to have turned in favor of the Cuban insurgents. From the 12th to the 20th of December, they made successful raids on the towns of Mayari and Holguin, sacking a large number of establishments, and killing sixty Spanish soldiers, themselves withdrawing without any serious casualties. These look like very limited operations but they are more extended than anything that has been done on either side for a long time.

It has become practically impossible, remarks the Times, to retain any judicial talent either on the bench or in the District Attorney's office in Utah. The United States District Court renders decisions and makes decrees but they are impudently set at defiance by the Mormons, and the Government does not enforce them. So a lawyer of talent and self respect cannot consent to remain.

Joaquin Miller's Isles of the Amazon is concluded in the January number of the Overland Monthly. Taking the poem as a whole we think it will not add very materially to his fame. There are many fine passages in it, but it falls far short of a perfect poem.

The San Francisco Bulletin of the 5th inst., giving the names of the members of the committee to whom the Goat Island bill was referred in the Senate, expresses the belief that the committee will be favorable to the people instead of the railway company.

It is stated that there is no lack of applicants for the office of Commissioner of Indian Affairs made vacant by the resignation of General Walker, notwithstanding the salary is only three thousand dollars per year.

In the reports of Congressional proceedings of January 6th we find the following:

In the Senate, Sherman offered a resolution directing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to inquire and report whether the recent election for President and Vice President was conducted in Louisiana and Arkansas in accordance with the laws of the United States, and what contests have arisen as to who were elected as Electors in either State, and what measures are necessary to provide for the determination of such contests, and to guard against and determine like contests in the future; the committee to have power to send for persons and papers, take testimony and, if necessary, to authorize suitable unprejudiced persons to take such testimony as may be material in the determination of any contest there growing out of the election.

West objected to its present consideration and the resolution was laid over.

Morton offered a resolution directing the Committee on Privileges and Elections to examine and report at next session of Congress on the best and most practical mode of electing the President and Vice President of the United States, and of providing a tribunal to adjust and decide all contested questions connected therewith. Ordered printed.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up. The amount appropriated by the bill is $434,165—$917,307 less than last year. When the item appropriating $900,000 for the Sioux Indians was reached, Harlan had communications from Cowan, Acting Secretary of the Interior, setting forth the sources of information about the Teton Sioux and stating that in view of recent charges in the newspapers that no such Indians existed, an order had been issued on the 7th ultimo prohibiting additional alleged disbursements for the benefit of said tribe until further notice. The communication is accompanied by a statement of the disbursement for the Teton Sioux during the past year, from which it appears that only $303,000 out of $500,000 appropriated has been paid out. The bill was finally agreed to and the Senate adjourned.

The Louisiana Troubles.

Washington dispatches of the 6th instant have this:

The announcement has just been made at Louisiana [illegible] apparently by authority, that General Emory has received instructions from Washington that the United States troops shall only be used to preserve the peace and that any body of citizens styling themselves what they may have the right to meet peaceably for any purpose not unlawful and that if any attempt should be made to disperse such assemblage they shall be protected. When this was announced to the crowd assembled in the St. Charles Hotel it was received simultaneously [illegible]. Whew! the President has gone back on Kellogg.

Private advices received here from New Orleans are to the effect that many leading bankers, property holders and merchants have called upon Kellogg, and assured him of their confidence in his ability and disposition to relieve the financial condition of Louisiana, and tender him their aid and influence in that direction. A syndicate composed of leading banks is being formed for the purpose of taking a new city consolidated loan which if successful will place the city of New Orleans on a cash basis at once.

A New Orleans dispatch of the same date says:

The papers of this morning contain the following address:

Fellow citizens of New Orleans: Relying on the patriotism you have exhibited I conjure you to bear yourselves this day with prudence, dignity, firmness and moderation. Assemble as peaceable citizens to witness the inauguration of the only true and legal Legislature of your State. It is your right and duty thus to lend the moral support of your presence. Let no riotous or noisy demonstrations weaken the effect produced by your unanimity. Be calm as you are strong, in the midst of great political excitement incident to an attempted overthrow of your liberties by an organized conspiracy. Show to the people of the United States of America a dignity of bearing worthy of you and the great cause in which you are peaceably engaged for the maintenance of your liberties and constitutional rights. Be not alarmed, fellow citizens, the Government of the United States will not exert its great power to put down and suppress peaceable assemblies of the people but will rather protect them against violent assaults from any quarter. Let it never be said that any act of violence on your part was the primary cause of public disturbances. I repeat, fellow citizens, be firm but calm and dignified.

(Signed) JOHN McENERY.

Cabinet Rumors

It is impossible for the ordinary mind to keep pace with the advance of Cabinet rumors. The Washington dispatches of December 23, announce the certain retirement of three members. And now comes a dispatch of the 6th of January which says:

As the question of changes anticipated in the Cabinet still continues to be the topic of much discussion, it is proper to say, on behalf of the President, that thus far no steps whatever have been taken in regard to the Cabinet for the incoming term. As between the Attorney General and the President no conversation or intimation has occurred looking to Judge Williams' retirement. On the contrary, the President is known to favor the retention of that officer. Nothing has occurred in relation to Secretary Fish to induce the belief that he is to retire on the 4th of March or at any stated time. The President and all the members of the Cabinet are believed to favor the retaining of Fish in his present office, and that officer has not lately indicated any peremptory intentions of retiring. Unless a change is made in the entire Cabinet on the 4th of March, or a day or two thereafter, it is pretty certain that none is intended for the next four years. The report that Secretary Belknap has incurred the displeasure of the President is regarded by other members of the Cabinet as simply ridiculous. The only change in the Cabinet regarded as certain is that of the Secretary of the Treasury. It is regarded certain that Boutwell will be elected to the Senate from Massachusetts, and will thus vacate the Treasury Department.

The following condensed statement of Oakes Ames testimony before the Credit Mobilier Investigating Committee is telegraphed:

Oakes Ames' testimony shows that Senator Grimes, John B. Alley and Samuel Hooper subscribed largely. Colfax wanted some allotted stock, but it was never transferred to him. Mrs. Henry Wilson objected to the investment made for her, and money was returned. Patterson, of New Hampshire, received dividends on 30 shares. Blaine declined receiving any. Dawes negotiated but declined after inquiries. Bingham took 20. Garfield agreed to take 10, but never received them. Boutwell was offered some but did not take them. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, had no money to buy. Scofield took one share but returned it. James F. Wilson and W. B. Allison, of Iowa, bought one share each. Ames never gave one to Senator Conkling.

A Washington dispatch of the 6th says:

Friends of the postal telegraph bill are prepared for a vigorous campaign in behalf of that scheme for the remainder of the session, but these gentlemen cannot agree among themselves as to just exactly what measure they want. The Hubbard bill has many opponents among those who favor a postal telegraph system, while the supporters of the measure are determined not to indorse any scheme which will be antagonistic with their own. Well informed members of both Houses express the opinion that no bill of any kind of this character stands the slightest chance of passage.

The Postmaster General advertises for bids for the manufacture of 4,883,000,000 of postage stamps for the use of the people of the United States during the next four years.

CITY.

Falling Signs.—Sign fastenings during the past month have been sorely tried by the heavy gales and storms which have passed over the city. Several have lately been blown down. We suspect that if the attachments—rods, hinges and bolts—were closely scrutinized by experienced persons, many of the heavy signs about the streets would be found in such a condition that if known to pedestrians who saunter leisurely about the city, they would wear sheet iron hats, insure their lives, and be very apt to look up every time a sign was passed. In speaking of the general insecurity of signs we are reminded of an incident which befel three gentlemen in this city yesterday. These persons were all members of the "art preservative." They were walking up Front street leisurely, and without the slightest apprehension of danger. Ahead of the trio a few yards hung a ponderous sign, which to all human appearances was securely fastened to the awning overhead. When the three persons were almost immediately beneath this sign, the fastening at one end suddenly gave way, without the slightest apparent cause, and the unsupported end came down like a thousand of brick, but a few feet ahead of the typos, who not having the slightest intimation that the sign meditated a sudden descent, very narrowly escaped carrying away three fractured skulls. Had the fastening given away a few seconds later, the fall would have been attended with serious or fatal consequences. Moral: do not walk on the sidewalk without you provide yourself with an iron skull cap, and always give heavy signs a wide berth.

Logs Secured.—A degree of success unexpected has attended the efforts thus far made to recover the logs which escaped from the lower sawmill last Thursday night. The three steamers Ben Holladay, E. N. Cooke and Mary Bell, were sent after the boom early on Friday morning, as soon as it was known that they had escaped. Although the logs had several hours start, the steamers succeeded in overtaking the boom and passing it. A number were captured at Wallamet Slough and opposite Springville. Those overhauled were made secure to the shore and the steamers crowded ahead. Rainier was reached some time before the foremost logs arrived at that point. A strong boom was hastily improvised and stretched from one shore to the other, so that every log which came down was caught and secured. By this means a large proportion of the boom will be saved. All along the shore from Springville down to Rainier, the farmers and fishermen have been busily engaged in catching the logs. Considerable time and labor will be expended in gathering up these scattered ones and collecting them, but it will be done, as it will be much cheaper for the Company than to purchase. When the water falls and the current moves less swiftly, all the logs will be formed into rafts and towed back to the mill. The Mill Company will sustain a heavy loss by reason of the breakage of the boom and the consequent delay; but the damage is far less than if a smaller proportion or none of the logs had been saved.

Neptune Rowing Club.—A meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the members of the Neptune Rowing Club. The principal object of the meeting was to divide the amount of money which had accumulated in the treasury of the Club, and not to dissolve, as stated in the Herald. Mr. Holland informed us that the Club was determined not to disband, but would rally again next spring. A degree of apathy and unconcern has been evinced for the last year by most of the members composing the club, which has been discouraging to several of the more active ones. The Club still have possession of their splendid row boat, the Webfoot, and when spring opens practice will be resumed and a degree of proficiency in the "muscular science" attained, to which the Club have heretofore been comparative strangers. There are now belonging to the Club four able and experienced oarsmen, and it is their determination to keep up the organization, and by constant practice acquire a degree of skill and excellence in the management of their boat, that should a challenge at any time be sent the Club from either British Columbia or California, they will be in a condition to take up the gauntlet thrown down without fear. If for nothing more than to sustain that local pride which attaches to the State and city, it is to be sincerely hoped the Club will not dissolve through discouragement. Our citizens should give sympathy, countenance and the support necessary to sustain the organization.

Narrow Escape from Drowning.—A little boy, son of a Mr. Silverstone who resides on Front street, aged about six years, narrowly escaped drowning yesterday. About half past 10 o'clock, in company with several other boys, young Silverstone was playing on the wharf at the foot of Main street, at which the brigantine Augusta is lying. He was on the upper deck, and losing his balance, while leaning over the edge, fell head first into the river. The alarm was given by Silverstone's companions, and several persons on the street came hurriedly to the rescue. But the current ran strong at that point, and soon the boy was borne away from the wharf. Before anything could be done, Silverstone sank and rose twice. Anthony Wayne, the first mate on the Augusta perceiving the danger of the boy, and knowing that not one moment was to be lost, sprang into the water and swam for the imperiled youth. He reached Silverstone just as he was going down for the last time. The boy in a totally unconscious condition was rescued and brought to the shore. For a time it was thought that the vital spark had fled, but after rolling and chafing the boy for a while, he was resuscitated, and brought to consciousness.

Brigantine Augusta Examined.—In order to satisfy the underwriter, and the owners, W. Moffett & Co., as to the seaworthy qualities of the brigantine Augusta, that vessel was examined last Saturday by Capt. John Purdy of the ship Whittington, and Mr. John Holland, chief boat builder for the O. S. N. Co. The brigantine was carefully inspected both within and without. Everything was found to be staunch and firm. All the bolts were carefully examined to see if there had been any perceptible strain during the last voyage. No indications were discovered, and not a bolt was started. As there was a little indication of weakness aft, Mr. Holland recommended that two hooks and pointers be placed in, which although not absolutely necessary would impart additional strength to the whole vessel. Captain Shirburne, of the vessel stated that she did not leak a drop. The examination resulted satisfactory and favorable to the owners. The underwriter after the inspection, stated that he had no hesitation whatever in insuring the cargo. Workmen are engaged in putting in the braces, suggested by Mr Holland, and the vessel will be in a condition to receive cargo in a few days.

Pedestrians, Beware.—If there is any one special locality against which we desire to caution pedestrians, it is the southwest corner of Washington and First streets. The apron at that place is in an admirable condition to cost the city the value of a broken leg, according to the estimate made by twelve men sworn to decide according to the "law and the evidence." The planks at that point have succumbed to the wear and tear of a million or more soles, and the elements. A portion of one of the planks has fallen away, leaving a space about four inches wide and three feet long. Scarcely a pedestrian who has occasion to pass that way, but what manages to "put his foot in it." Yesterday a gentleman who was passing that way, happened to glance up street just as he placed his foot on the apron. He stepped through, and losing his balance, fell headlong to the sidewalk. Fortunately for his limb, he fell straight ahead and received no other injury beside a severe jolt. Had he fallen sidewise, his ankle would have surely been broken short off. Some one, whose duty it is to attend to such matters, should repair this dangerous place before it is the cause of a serious accident.

A New Club Organized.—A new club was organized in this city a few evenings since, known as the "Progress Club." The object of the club is mutual improvement, and the cultivation of etiquette and sociability. The organization was effected by the election of the following officers: President, Louis Fleischner, Vice President, Alexander Mayer, Secretary, David Walker, Treasurer, M Seller, Trustees, Charles Hirstel, Ilan White, H Ackerman, I Kaufman and Emil Frank. Suitable rooms will be procured as soon as practicable for the use of the club. These rooms are intended to include a dancing hall in which social balls will be given as often as may be desirable; also billiard, lunch, reception and dressing rooms. Membership is confined to no one class. Any person can become attached to the club by conforming to the rules and regulations prescribed. Every application for membership must be made in the regular manner by being presented to a select committee, who have the privilege of reporting favorably or adversely to the applicant. At present there are 14 charter members attached to the "Progress Club."

Sportsmen's Club.—A regular meeting of this club was held at the Police Court room last Saturday evening.

The report of the Committee on Printing who returned the Constitution and By Laws of the club with the game laws attached, was read and adopted.

The bill of A G Walling was read and ordered paid.

The bill of the Secretary was read and approved.

The club resolved themselves into a Committee of the Whole to discuss the question of having a shooting match on the 22d of February, 1873.

The Chairman of the Committee of the Whole made a report upon which a committee consisting of J H Logan, I M King and L I Chemin were appointed, to report on the question of a shooting match.

The President was added to the committee, as were also Messrs Schenck and Bingham.

It was carried that when the club adjourn that they do so to meet on Saturday two weeks hence to receive the report of the committee above appointed.

The club then adjourned.

Cold with a Vengeance.—The people of Webfoot often complaining bitterly of the cold weather in this climate. It does sometimes become decidedly cool in these latitudes and we are occasionally called upon to dispense with iced juleps, and doff straw hats and linen coats for a season. But if we had a genuine touch of such weather as annually visits "Varmount" or some of the adjacent States, our people might mutter between their chattering teeth that it was "demnition cold in these ere parts." A gentleman informed us yesterday that he was just in receipt of a letter from a friend in Vermont, which stated that on the 20th day of December, the thermometer stood 38° below zero, with the snow four feet deep. Think of that ye Webfooters! One more degree and the thermometer would have been put in its little bed, until the weather relented.

New Masonic Hall.—The statement was made in these columns a few days ago, that the members of the Masonic Order in East Portland were agitating the subject of erecting a new brick hall in that place the coming season. There has as yet been no decided action taken in the project. We are informed that at a recent meeting a committee was appointed to make an estimate of the cost of constructing a hall suitable to the purposes designed. A gentleman has made an advantageous offer, by which the Association—if one should be incorporated—can place themselves in possession of a lot on Fourth street, near its intersection with J. The building will be 75x25 feet, and two stories high. The upper story will be used for the hall, and the lower rented for a store. The probable cost of such a structure will not exceed $3,500.

Wary.—There has been considerable complaint for some time past in regard to a pack of young ruffians who frequent old and vacant buildings in the western portion of the city. These hoodlums have been conducting themselves in such a lawless and outrageous manner, that they are the plague and pest of that part of the city. There seems to be no speedy manner of redress at hand, for these young vandals are extremely wary, and take care to practice their deviltry before the police officer who patrols that portion of the city goes on duty. The officer starts on his beat at 9 o'clock, after which hour not a hoodlum is seen. A special officer ought to be deputized to attend to the case of these young candidates for admission to our jails and penitentiaries.

Item in Prospect.—At the present stage of the river the floating pontoon, at the foot of Stark street, affords an irresistible temptation for small boys to play around the water's edge. Every day a number of venturesome urchins can be seen congregated about the floating roadway, wading in the water, or steering miniature fleets. Several times we have personally witnessed narrow escapes which these little scamps have run. If the practice is continued, we shall keep our pencil sharpened in anticipation of a first class item, and the undertaker we opine will soon have the melancholy task to perform of planting some young hopeful. Parents ought to see that their children are not allowed to go near the river—for the present at all events.

Burned.—A small child of a Mr. Campbell, who resides six miles east of East Portland, was severely burned a few evenings since. The child was playing about the fireplace with its brothers, when it lost its balance and fell backward into the fire. The mother, who was in the room, attracted by the screams of the little sufferer, sprang to the rescue. The little fellow was snatched from his seat of live coals in time to prevent his burning to death. The clothes were on fire, but the mother tore them off before serious consequences resulted. However, the child was severely burned. Dr. Rafferty, of East Portland, was summoned to attend the little sufferer. At last accounts, the child was in a fair way to recover.

A Cold Bath.—The night watchman, employed in the Custom House, while doing duty Friday night on the wharf at which the bark Barracouta lies, stumbled over a plank, resulting in his taking an involuntary bath, and at an unseasonable hour, too. His loud call awoke the officers and sailors on the bark, besides those on the Rival lying near by, who hastily donned their apparel and proceeded to the scene of the disaster. Ropes were procured and passed down to the drowning man, who grasped them with all that energy at his command, and was drawn ashore by the men on the rope. It was a lucky escape, and had it not been for the healthy lungs of the victim, he would certainly have met with a watery grave.

Result of the Assay.—Several days ago specimens of quartz rock, brought from the Bohemia mines, owned by Mr. Joseph Knott of this city, were submitted to Mr. J. H. Fisk for assay. Tests were made of the richer and poorer portions of the rock with the following results:

First Class—Yield of silver per ton, 44 34 ounces; yield of gold per ton, 121 50 ounces; value of silver per ton, $57 20; value of gold per ton, $2,197. Total value per ton, $2,254 20.

Second Class—Yield of silver per ton, 12.15 oz. per ton; yield of gold per ton, 30.37 ounces; value of silver per ton, $16 25; value of gold per ton, $653 11. Total value, $674 86.

Steamer California.—This steamer was towed down to the lower saw mill yesterday by the E. N. Cooke for repairs. The California has needed repairs for some time. She has been more or less racked in the transportation of stone for the custom house, and requires overhauling to put her in good condition again. A new fore-mast will be placed in, as the present one was badly shattered some time ago by the accidental bursting of a signal gun. The steamer Gussie Telfair will take the route temporarily.

Boiler Overhauled.—The boiler which has been used for some years on the steamer Okanagon, was taken out last week. It was taken to the Dalles to day, and will undergo a thorough overhauling at the O S N Co's work shop there. The intention is to place the boiler in the new boat which will be built the coming spring by the Company, at this place. The boiler is yet sound, and with repairs will be made to render service for years to come.

Practicing.—The East Portland Brass Band, under the leadership of Prof Tom Parrott, are practicing regularly once a week, and are making very creditable proficiency in the art which soothes the savage breast. A number of new and difficult pieces have recently been introduced, and will be offered on the first public occasion. A valuable acquisition has been made to this excellent band by the addition of several talented and experienced musicians.

New Fire Company.—Last Saturday evening a meeting was held at the corner of Clay and Front streets, by a number of citizens who reside in the southern part of the city, for the purpose of organizing a new fire company. President, D C Lewis, Secretary, E. Mendenhall, Foreman, J. J Meagher, First Assistant, L Delschneider, Second Assistant, F Hirsch Jr, G Gardner, Treasurer. The number of names now enrolled are forty eight.

Caught.—The piles driven at intervals across the river opposite the foot of Columbia street, by the bridge company in making a preliminary examination of the bed of the Wallamet, have formed good points to collect drift wood. One of the piles which protrudes several feet above the surface of the water, has detained considerable quantities of the passing drift.

Brig Perpetua.—This brig arrived off the bar on Saturday and was coming over as the steamer Oriflamme left Astoria. The Perpetua comes from San Francisco with a large assorted cargo.

To Sail.—The steamer Gussie Telfair did not sail for the north on Saturday as announced. She will sail with freight and passengers this evening.

Temperance Lectures.—Levi Leland, the "Hermit of Oregon City," will lecture at the Court House on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the present week. Mr. Leland's subject will be "Temperance." He is reported to be an eloquent, able speaker, and his lectures will doubtless be interesting and instructive to his audience.

A "Hefty" Pig.—Mr John Powell slaughtered on the 6th of the month, a young hog which weighed 509 pounds, neat weight. The hog was only 18 months old. It was one half Chester and one half mixed breed. Mr. Powell purchased this swine from Dr Hawthorne when it was only six weeks old and raised it. Who can beat this?

Before the Commissioner.—The case of R Johnson, C Marsh, and J Irving, severally accused of broaching the cargo of the bark Rival, was continued on Saturday in the Commissioner's Court until this morning at 10 o'clock. The cause was continued in order to allow time to procure important witnesses.

Lodged.—A large fir tree, uprooted by the late storm and risen in the river, was drifted down and lodged at the upper end of the outside wharf, last Saturday. It lies along side where steamers and sailing vessels are moored and unless removed while the water is still high, may form a serious obstacle in the future.

Commenced to Load.—The ship Whittington has discharged most of her ballast. The ballast from the forward part of the vessel has been removed from the hold. Wheat will be stowed in that part of the ship to stiffen her while the remainder of the ballast is being discharged.

Several Courts.—The U S Circuit Court will convene this morning at the usual hour.

The U S District Court will meet to morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The County Court, Judge Hamilton presiding, will meet this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Crossed Over.—The German bark Mendelssohn crossed over the bar last Friday and will arrive at this port in tow of the tug Merrimac at 10 o'clock. This vessel comes in ballast from Hongkong.

Benefit.—Protection Engine Company No. 4, have been tendered a complimentary benefit by the Waldron Troupe, which will be given at Oro Fino Theater to morrow evening.

Arrived.—The steamer Oriflamme arrived at this port last night from San Francisco with passengers and freight. Moderately fair weather was encountered on the passage.

Case Continued.—By general consent the case of L O Lander, charged with assaulting his wife and sister in law, was continued in the Police Court until this morning.

AMUSEMENTS.

M Ainsley Scott has resumed his place with Emerson's Minstrels at the Alhambra, San Francisco.

The members of Willamette Co. No. 1 will give a social hop at Masonic Hall on the evening of January 23d.

"Ireland as it Was," and "Taming the Shrew," attracted a very full house at Oro Fino Theater last Saturday evening.

J H O'Neil is playing "Eph," in a new play of that title written for him, in the Eastern States. He introduces the "Quintessence of old Virginia," during the piece—a dance that made him a great favorite here years ago.

Baker Post G A R propose to give on next Thursday evening a literary and musical entertainment at Nonpareil Hall. The affair will wind up with a social hop. The occasion will be select, and none but members and invited guests will be admitted.

Superior attractions are offered the public this evening at Oro Fino Theater. The entertainment will open with Boucicault's new sensation play of "Driven from Home," followed by a roaring farce. The recitations of "Sheridan's Ride," by S Piercy, and "Schneider's Ride," by W. C. Crosbie, will occupy the interlude.

PERSONAL.

Lieut. Kapus is now in the service of Hutchinson, Kohl & Co., on the Alaskan coast.

General Schofield, Commander of the Department of California, has gone to Honolulu.

Mr. F. S. Aiken of J Kraemer & Co., is at present in the East buying goods for the house of which he is a partner.

H. Ackerman Esq., of the Dollar Store, will leave on the steamer following the Oriflamme, for San Francisco.

Lieut. Caziare, of Gen. Canby's staff, returned on the steamer bringing with him one of California's fairest daughters as his wife.

THE COURTS.

COUNTY COURT—HAMILTON, J.

SATURDAY, Jan 11 1873.

In the matter of the estate of Thomas Glennon, deceased, objections to final account overruled, and final account allowed.

Court adjourned until Monday at 1 o'clock.

The Statesman says: General Palmer has organized a Judicial system among the Siletz Indians, by which they are enabled and encouraged to settle there own differences. For some time he has held weekly councils with the head men of the tribes, for the purpose of establishing a code of procedure, and determining more definitely what practices among the Indians shall be held lawful or unlawful. Among other things agreed upon as unlawful, is the practice of putting away wives at pleasure and taking new ones. The other day an offence of this kind was tried by the Indian court, and the offender being found guilty was sentenced to pay a fine of $40, and to put away his new wife and take back the old one. The Indian court consists of five Chiefs elected by the Indians. Proceedings before it are commenced by a complaint to the Agent who judges whether it is of sufficient importance to be worth a trial. If so, he convenes the court, presides at the opening, lays the case before them, and then leaves them to try it, taking care that the proceedings are orderly and regular. The agent reserves the right to set aside a verdict. There is also a court of appeals consisting of seven chiefs or head men drawn by lot from the whole number. Parties aggrieved by the judgment of the court below have the right to take the matter before this court of appeals in cases where the agent declines to set aside a verdict. The Indians have a Sheriff who executes the orders of these courts. General Palmer says the Indians are greatly pleased with this judicial system, and he finds that by its adoption, his authority is greatly supported by the most influential men of the several tribes, all controversies are settled more entirely to the satisfaction of all the parties concerned. Proceedings in the courts are generally conducted with gravity and decorum.

It is proposed to appoint a State Forester, in Nebraska, who shall see to the preservation of her forests, and diffuse information on tree planting.

Glorious News! Glorious News!—The popular and largest Clothing House in the State escaped the great fire, and will therefore sell for the next sixty days their goods at such low rates as to give all a chance to invest, rich or poor. Call and satisfy yourself, as we mean what we say above, and no humbug about it.

London Fashions for the Winter have arrived at the Millinery Emporium of Mrs Kingsbury, corner of Third and Alder streets. New Frames and Trimmings are among the attractions. Mrs Kingsbury who is from the great metropolis, has had many years experience. The ladies will find elegant and beautiful goods at Mrs Kingsbury's.

"Of late years advertising has assumed a very important phase—in fact, has become a science in business and no one has done more, or as much to make it so as Geo P Rowell & Co., of New York. Their prompt and systematic mode of transacting their business has gained the confidence of all large advertisers and has raised them in a few years from one of the smallest to the leading advertising house in the world."—Maple Leaf.

In its Half Century of usefulness, Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry has saved thousands from destruction. A half hour's exposure, a few moments of draft will often create a cold which will lead to an incurable consumption. Use the Balsam in time: you will not regret it.

Twenty five sacks of delayed Eastern letter and paper mail—principally the latter—arrived on the steamer.

"Enquirer" is informed that we know not of the Philharmonic Society. Probably some member can give him the desired information.

A young man, supposed to be a typo, created considerable attention at the theater on Saturday evening by allowing his feelings to get the best of him—he cried.

The U S steamship Saranac, which was here many months ago, sailed from San Francisco on the 8th a cruise up and down the Mexican coast to be gone about four months.

Omaha, the great headquarters for lotteries, is sending out more circulars, the last being one to come off in April. Don't all of you "bite" at once. Big prize only $50,000.

On Tuesday last as the Emma Augusta was entering the slip at San Francisco, she ran into the Moses Taylor, breaking her jibboom square off. The Moses was only slightly damaged.

In slippers, a novelty is a trimming of two tiny rosettes—one high on the instep and the other directly below it. The first is fastened on elastic, and the stocking is visible between it and the lower one. Where nature has not given the beauty of a high instep, this slipper is advantageous, and was first worn, it is said, by a popular French actress.

The sharpest thing yet we get from an exchange, in regard to a girl out west, who makes her unsuspecting father the daily bearer of sweet missives to a clerk in his office who has been forbidden to visit his employer's house. She pins the letter in the old man's cloak, and when he reaches the office and throws off the garment the clerk gets it and responds by the same carrier.

A man decidedly "under the weather" gained admission to one of our public institutions over night. When the janitor turned the gas off he was not observed; but later in the evening a gentleman in an adjoining room hearing a noise proceeded to the place, and, upon opening the door, the fellow stumbled out, and as the stairs were convenient, he made a series of gymnastic movements down them.

Persons wishing to make a present to their friends of a fine easy chair or an article of furniture at once useful and ornamental, should go to Hurgren & Shindler's.

Shaken Constitutions.

General debility, and the despondency by which it is invariably accompanied, are often regarded as the symptoms of incurable physical decay. Of persons thus afflicted it is often said that their constitutions are undermined, that they have nothing left to fall back upon, that they are hopeless cases. This, in nine cases out of ten, is a false conclusion. A constitution may be shaken without being undermined, and even if undermined may be propped and strengthened, and in many so called hopeless cases there are reserves of vitality and latent vigor in the system that only require stimulating and developing to render them equal to the work of repair. The best and surest stimulant and invigorant that can be given as a remedy for decay of the vital powers, whether natural or casual, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the faltering physique can be roused into healthy activity by any human means, this regenerating vegetable cordial will accomplish that object. Its effects upon the appetite, the digestion, the nervous system, the secretive organs is most salutary. It not only acts directly upon the solids and fluids of the body, but indirectly upon the constitution itself. Persons left by fever in such a deplorably helpless condition that it would seem as they could never recover, may be completely built up—it might almost be said, re built—by this mighty, this well nigh infallible, vegetable restorative. At this season of inclement winds and chilling damps the Bitters should be taken as a protective medicine.

A well preserved Head of Hair, in a person of middle age, at once bespeaks refinement, elegance, health and beauty. It may truly be called Woman's Crowning Glory, while men are not insensible to its advantages and charms. Few things are more disgusting than this, frizzly, harsh, untamed Hair, with head and coat covered with Dandruff. Visit a barber and you feel and look like a new man. This is what LYON'S KATHAIRON will do all the time. The charm which lies in well placed Hair, Glossy Curls, Luxuriant Tresses and a Clean Head, is noticeable and irresistible.

Great Men.

GOSSIP ABOUT THEIR WEAKNESSES AND ECCENTRICITIES.

An interesting chapter might be written about the weaknesses of great men. The anecdotes of Archimedes will be remembered; he rushes through the streets of Syracuse, al fresco, crying, "Eureka!" and at the taking of the city he was killed by a soldier while tracing geometrical lines on sand.

Socrates, when filled with some idea, would stand for hours fixed like a statue. It is recorded of him that he stood amid the soldiers in the camp of Potidea, in rooted abstraction, listening to his "prophetic" or "supernatural" voice.

Democritus shut himself up for days together in a little apartment in his garden. Dante was subject to fits of abstraction, in which he often quite forgot himself. One day he found an interesting book, which he had long sought for, in a druggist's shop at Sienna, and sat reading there till night came on.

Budé, whom Erasmus called the wonder of France, was a thoroughly absent man. One day his domestic broke into his study with the intelligence that his house was on fire. "Go inform my wife," said he, "you know I do not interfere with household affairs!"

Scaliger only slept for a few hours and passed whole days without thinking of food. Sully when his mind was occupied with plans of reform, displayed extraordinary fits of forgetfulness. One day in winter, when on his way to church, he observed, "How cold it is to-day!" "Not more cold than usual," said one of his attendants. "Then I must have the ague," said Sully. "Is it not more probable that you are too scantily dressed?" he was asked. On lifting the tunic the secret was at once discovered; he had forgotten all his under clothes but his breeches!

Mrs. Bray tells a somewhat familiar story of the painter Stothard. When invited on one occasion to dine with the poet Rogers, on reaching the house in St. James' Palace, he complained of cold, and chancing to put his hand on his neck, he had forgotten to put on his cravat, when he hastily returned home to complete his attire.

Buffon was very fond of dress. He assumed the air of the grand seigneur, sported jewels and finery, wore rich lace and velvets, and was curled and scented to excess—wearing his hair en papillotte while at his studies. Pope, too, was a little dandy in a bag wig and sword; and his crooked figure enveloped in fashionable garments gave him the look of an overdressed monkey. Voltaire, also, was fond of magnificent attire, and usually dressed in an absurd manner.

Diderot once traveled from St. Petersburgh to Paris in his morning gown and night cap, and in this guise promenaded the streets and public places of the towns on his route. He was often taken as a madman. While composing his works he used to walk about with rapid strides, and sometimes throwing his wig in the air when he had struck out a happy idea. One day a friend found him in tears. "Good heavens!" he exclaimed, "what is the matter?" I am weeping, said Diderot, "at a story that I have just composed!"

Young, the poet, composed his "Night Thoughts" with a skull before him, at which he would sometimes place a lighted candle; and he occasionally sought his sepulchral inspiration by wandering among the tombs at midnight. Mrs. Radcliffe courted the horrors with which she filled her gloomy romances by supping on half-raw beefstakes, plentifully garnished with onions. Dryden used to take physic before setting himself to compose a new piece. Kant, the German philosopher, while lecturing had the habit of fixing his attention upon one of his auditors who wore a garment without a button in a particular place. One day the student had the button sewed on. Kant on commencing the lecture, fixed his eye on the usual place. The button was there! Fancy the consternation of the philosopher, whose ideas had become associated with that buttonless garment. His lecture that day was detestable; he was quite unhinged by the circumstance.

Too many authors have been fond of the bottle. Rabelais said, "Eating and drinking are my true and only Helicon, my cabalistic fountain, my sole enthusiasm, I deliberate; and deliberating, I drink." Ennius, Æschylus and Cato all got their inspiration while drinking. Mezeral always had a large bottle of wine beside him among his books; he drank of it at each page he wrote. He turned the night into day, and never composed except by lamp light, even in the day time. All his windows were darkened; and it was no unusual thing for him to show a friend to the door with a lamp, though outside it was broad daylight. On the contrary, Varillas, the historian, never wrote except at full midday. His ideas, he imagined, grew and declined with the sun's light.—Watson's Art Journal.

The Orange Society.

The following is published by request: The Orange Society of the United States, according to the statements of the Grand Master, John J. Bond, has been a distinct organization for many years. The Supreme Lodge, as it is called, is in England, and, under a charter granted by it, the Society has been established here for about four years. It was thought, however, that the American branch should be an independent organization, to avoid accusations of want of patriotism. The following is the general declaration of principles of the Society:

The Loyal Orange Institution of the United States of America is formed by persons desirous of supporting to the utmost of their power the principles and precepts of the Protestant religion, to maintain the laws and constitution of this country, afford assistance to the distressed members of the Order, and otherwise to promote such laudable and benevolent purposes as may tend to the due ordering of religion and Christian charity, and the supremacy of the law, order and constitutional freedom.

Its members associate in honor of William Henry, Prince of Orange, whose name they bear and whose memory they revere, tending, as he did under Divine Providence, to the overthrow of the most oppressive bigotry and the restoration of civil and religious freedom, and hope in the adoption of his name to emulate his virtues by maintaining religion without persecution or trenching upon the rights of any. They also assemble in the name and revere the memory of George Washington, believing him to be blessed by Almighty God, in raising as a last tribute to his memory, the universal freedom, both civil and religious, of this country to the end of time. Likewise do they revere the name of Abraham Lincoln, as one whom the people of this country should forever remember as the great liberator of a section of the human race.

The Orange Institution lays no claim to exclusive Protestantism or exclusive loyalty, but it admits no man or body of men within its pale whose creed is not Protestant, and whose principles are not loyal. Disclaiming an intolerant spirit, the Institution demands, as an indispensible qualification, without which the greatest and wealthiest man may seek admission in vain:

"That the candidate shall be believed to be incapable of persecuting or injuring any person on account of his religious opinions"—the duty of every Orangeman being to aid and defend all loyal citizens of every religious persuasion in the enjoyment of their constitutional rights.

The whole Institution is one neighborhood, within which every Orangeman is at home in the furthest part of the world, and such is the mechanism of the Institution that while its operations are thus extended, its every movement is alike felt and answered in every part.

In short, the Orange Institution, like a glorious morning luminary, is intended to pour its refulgence not on one part only of the circumference of the globe, but simultaneously on every portion, equally enlightening the whole periphery.

As the Prince of Orange was invited to England by a coalition of parties, united by a common sense of their sacred duty to preserve their civil and religious liberty, and as the Pilgrim Fathers were united in their earnest and zealous principles of freedom when approaching the shores of this free land to maintain therein those sacred rights forever, and as the immortal memories of Washington and Lincoln are sacredly held by all true patriots as being worthy the veneration of good men in every free land; so likewise doth the Loyal Orange Institution behoove all zealous and earnest Protestants, to rally round one common standard of freedom, composed of colors which have hitherto been borne through fields of fire and blood, on to the goal of victory, on behalf of civil and religious freedom The Orange and Purple, combined with the American Stars and Stripes, doth enjoin the suitable motto—In God we Trust—upon all loyal and worthy Protestants.

By order and consent of the Supreme Grand Orange Lodge of the United States.

JOHN J. BOND,
Grand Master.

A Bogus Masonic Gift Concert Exposed.

We find the following in the Omaha Tribune.

MASONIC HALL, OMAHA, NEB.,
December 27, 1872.

To Whom it may Concern:

WARNING—The undersigned officers of the various Masonic Bodies of this city desire to warn the Fraternity and the public, at home and abroad, against a lottery scheme under the name and style of "A Grand Gift Concert for the purpose of aiding a board of trustees to erect a Masonic Temple at Omaha," and to state that the same has been inaugurated and is now being carried on without the sanction or consent of any of the Masonic Bodies of this city or State.

That lotteries, and gift enterprises, being contrary to the principles of Masonry, are strictly forbidden by special resolutions of the Grand Lodge of Nebraska, and that the proprietors of the above named scheme are making use of the Masonic name for their own gain, without permission or authority of any Masonic body.

They also desire to state to the Fraternity and to the public, that there is no such thing in existence as a board of trustees for the Masonic Temple Guild; that the so-called board of trustees, if existing, is a self constituted board, and is wholly unauthorized to receive any money on behalf of the Masonic Guild or Fraternity of this city.

They therefore most earnestly condemn the entire scheme as unwarranted, and wholly unworthy of confidence or support, and they take this method of warning the members of the Fraternity and the public everywhere, against having anything to do with it, and of exonerating the Masonic Fraternity in this city and State, from the odium attached to lotteries, gift enterprises, and other like immoral and unmasonic practices.

They also most earnestly request, as a special favor to the Masonic Fraternity of this city, that every newspaper in the United States will publish the above; and that all Masters of Masonic Lodges, High Priests of Chapters, and Eminent Commanders of Knights Templar everywhere, will cause the same to be read to their respective bodies, in order that the Fraternity and the public may not be beguiled into countenancing, supporting or placing any confidence in the above named lottery scheme, as being in any manner connected with, or approved of, by the Masonic Fraternity, or any Masonic body of this city or State.

By order of the Eminent Commander of Mount Calvary Commandery No. 1, K. T.
THOMAS SWOBE, Recorder.

There are arising some intricate questions in connection with the distribution of the Alabama award. A Washington dispatch of the 29th ult., says:

It is conceded that where private individuals have been paid part of their losses by insurance companies, for that part they have no equitable claim upon the award. Their losses not paid by insurance companies ought to be satisfied in full out of the award. The part of the total award that may not be required for this purpose will belong either to the insurance companies or the Government. The insurance companies received, in the way of advanced rates, all they expected to make out of the risks, and anything which might be allowed them out of the award would be a clear salvage. It is evident that if the insurance companies' claims have any basis of equity, that the true basis of calculating is is to find the absolute amount received by them on account of the advanced rates at which risks were taken over the ordinary rates, and compare this advanced receipt with the extraordinary or war losses, and then, if these losses were greater than the extra amount of premius, allow the companies such excess. To this extent it is generally admitted the claims of insurance companies may be equitable. But it is believed the companies, on this basis of calculation, would get nothing at all, and most of them would prove to have made large sums of money from war risks.

We clip the following from a Washington special to the New York Times, dated Dec. 29th:

Thus far it is known that three members of the Cabinet will positively retire, of their own volition, on the 4th of March next, viz.: Messrs. Fish, Boutwell and Williams. All of them will then tender their resignations, but only those three, so far as is now known, will decline further service. Secretary Fish will retire, in accordance with a determination long since expressed, although the President has recently expressed his very strong desire to have him remain in the Cabinet as long as he remained in the Presidency. Secretary Boutwell will retire positively, whether called to service in the Senate or not. Attorney General Williams will likewise voluntarily decline further official service, in deference to future business plans. Of course, nothing has been developed with reference to the successors of these gentlemen, and the mention of any names is, therefore, simply the reiteration of current gossip, and current gossip mentions the name of Hon. E. Rockwood Hoar, of Massachusetts, for the State Department, and Hon. E. D. Morgan, of New York, for the Treasury. The transfer of Secretary Delano to the same Department is also suggested.

The New York Times' correspondent writing from Havana says:

The blind leaders of the pro-slavery party neither see nor hear; they despise the distant rumbling of the thunder which announces the coming tempest; any change in the existing condition of slavery will find the country unprepared to receive the consequent upheavings of an ignorant and brutal multitude, or to resist the death blow aimed against an institution condemned by Heaven and men. The pro slavery party act as if they hated Cuba, and as if they took a fiendish delight in prolonging the present state of affairs, so that the coming blow will prove the common ruin of all, except the wealthy magnates, who, shielded by the bayonets of the volunteers and regulars, manage to gather the present crop of sugar, and send the proceeds out of the country, caring nothing what becomes of the island afterward.

The negroes themselves are well aware of the condition of affairs; they know of the agitation in their behalf, and trust to the honor of the Spanish Cortes and the powerful assistance of Great Britain and the United States to forge the hammer which, with one blow, will break their fetters.

The New Haven Palladium has this description of the uniform of the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows of New England:

Black chapeau with three plumes, two black and one royal purple. Yellow metal crossed crooks on a black rosette, with a purple center, on the left side of the hat. Gauntlet gloves, the hand part black kid, gauntlets of royal purple, with yellow crossed crooks embroidered on the back of each cuff. A baldric to be four inches wide, trimmed with yellow lace. A purple velvet belt, with two stripes of gilt lace braid through the centre. Sword thirty-six inches long, yellow metal scabbard, cross handle, black hilt.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Financial.

SATURDAY EVENING, Jan. 11, 1873.

Gold in New York to-day, 112¼.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 88½c buying; 89½c, selling.

Gold bars are quotable at 800 fine.

Wheat in Liverpool—Average, 12s 6d@12s 7d, Club, 13s@13s 4d.

There is continuance of the demand for loanable funds from our local market considerably beyond the supply, and the movement in the wheat market in the interior, produced by the advance has somewhat increased the call in that direction. During the week now closing purchases have been quite large and until the crop is moved we may look for a tendency in the same direction quite sufficient to affect our local market. However, we shall soon begin to enjoy the the returns for our products shipped earlier in the season to an extent of the amount required to purchase the remainder and this equipoise existing the general finances will as a consequence exhibit a better condition.

The Wheat Market.

In the review of this subject in the columns of the Reporter of to-day, we find that there was exported to San Francisco from August 1st, 1871, to January 1st, 1872, 179,304 centals, against 181 centals for the same period of time in 1872-73. The total exports aggregate from August 1st, 1871, to January 1st, 1872, 273,767 centals, against 209,518 centals from August 1st, 1872, to January 1st, 1873, a difference in favor of last season's exports for the first five months, of 64,249 centals. With the vessels now in port to load, and known to be on the way, we will yet ship direct about 300,000 centals, which will make for the season about 510,000 centals, which unless shipments are augmented to San Francisco, or more vessels come, will be considerably less than exported for the season of 1871-2. Of the 300,000 centals wanted, over two-thirds have been purchased, and as many of the vessels will not arrive until spring, exporters claim to be easy. In reviewing our market for the past two seasons we find that prices opened, January 1st, 1871, at $1 75 to $1 80, advanced quite rapidly, and at one time touched $2 65, but suddenly dropped, toward the middle of spring. At the commencement of the harvest season, August 1st, 1871, prices for new opened at $1 75 to $1 85, and at the opening of last year, or January 5th, 1872, $1 75 to $1 90; March 1st $1 75 to $1 85; April 1st, $1 70 to $1 75, but sales were made during March at $1 80 to $1 95, and, during April, $1 65 to $1 90; May 1st, $1 50 to $2 00, June 10th $1 60 to $1 70; July 10th, $1 15 to $1 40. It is well known that prices at the commencement of the present harvest season opened at $1 55 per cental and remained for some time, when it gradually advanced, and then rapidly until the highest point was touched the fore part of this week, and now prices are weaker, with one of the largest buyers out of the market. It will be seen by the above review that prices have, during the year, fluctuated considerable. Last season, or from August 1st, 1871, to July 31st, 1872, charters were low, and shippers paid high prices for Wheat, but this season charters have been very high, and the price of Wheat suffered. But when freight charters receded Wheat advanced. Market values now are controlled by Liverpool, as charters appear steady, and, owing to the export demand for Lumber are not likely to recede again during the season. Before closing it is well enough to canvass the quantity yet in the interior. Last season there was carried into the present season all of 10,000 tons, (from actual count.) The bulk passed into consumption for mixing by millers. The crop this season was larger by all of 15,000 tons, perhaps 20,000. Some place it even higher, but we are willing to accept the lowest estimate, 15,000 tons, that gives us 25,000 tons more than for the season of 1871-72. There was manufactured and exported last season 107,590 bbls, of which amount 115,340 bbls went to San Francisco, balance to Puget Sound, British Columbia, Sitka, China and Honolulu. This season our exports of Flour will not vary much from last season, so that there will be equally as large an amount of Wheat manufactured into Flour as was last season, and no more. It will be seen, with no more Flour manufactured this season than last, we will have all of 25,000 tons more of Wheat to export than exported last year, with the amount reaching perhaps 30 000 tons. To accommodate this all of twenty vessels will be required to load for the United Kingdom direct. Since our last report we note sales of 9,000 centals at $1 82½, 5,000 at $1 75, 3,000 at $1 80.

While we doubt the entire accuracy of the figures given, there is reason to believe that they approximate the existing condition of the market.

We are sorry to be compelled to trespass on the patience of our readers with anything of a personal character, but we feel it a duty to notice the following which is from the columns of the Farmer, in the published report of the proceedings of the Highland Farmers' Club of January 4th, 1873:

"Mr. Geer, Chairman of the Committee on market reports, read an article from the OREGONIAN, to prove what he had frequently stated, viz: that that paper was in the interest of the Portland merchants instead of the farming community."

Now, we are only sorry that the Secretary of the Club did not furnish the Farmer with a copy of the article from this paper to which Mr. Geer referred, as the omission to do so has prevented us from showing wherein Mr. Geer was very seriously mistaken, as we certainly could had the article been specified. We may add that, if the gentleman has ever stated that this paper was in the interest of "the Portland merchants," he was entirely at fault, for the very good reason that their interests are in no way connected with ours, and we could have no motive for working in their interests that would not move us to speak for any other class of our people. As we have not the slightest idea to what Mr. Geer, who is a highly respected and intelligent farmer in Marion county, referred, we will postpone this matter, promising him that our columns are at his disposal to show whereon he founds such a statement, as reported in the Farmer, whenever it may suit his convenience to point it out. As we believe the gentleman on whose authority the statement is made is a fair man, we hope he will take the pains to give his reasons, and that the public will again hear from him. In the mean time we shall strive to furnish our readers with the latest and most reliable information in regard to commercial matters, and especially in regard to the Wheat market, it is possible to obtain, without fear or favor of any one class more than another.

Vessels Coming.

There are now due here and under way for this port fifteen sea-going vessels, with an average tonnage each of near 1,000 tons. Of these several are already under charter to load Wheat for the United Kingdom. Some four or five are already due. One is in the river, and the others will probably arrive at different dates between now and May 1st, at which time the last of the number will be about due. Nine are English vessels, four American, and two are German.

Home Produce Market.

Since our last report, business under this head has generally been active and the figures then given have been well maintained.

WHEAT.—A general review of the movement for two years in this cereal will be found above. Our market today presents no further aspect of importance than a general disinclination of producers to sell and a tendency on the part of buyers to accede in part to the demand for advanced figures. We hear of purchases at Lafayette, made on yesterday, at $1 per bushel delivered free on the boats or cars. This sale is not reported either by the vendor or purchaser, and the report may not be entirely correct. Our exporters refuse to furnish us quotations at a higher figure than $1 80 per cental, sacked and delivered; but outside reports are circulated that there are cases in which an advance of 5@10 cents per cental has been made on these figures.

FLOUR.—Prices are firm though the market is quiet and holders are not anxious to receive large orders at current rates. The stock on hand has considerably increased during the week. Standard extra, $5 50; country and superfine, $4@5 per bbl.

OATS.—But little excitement is noticed in the market, and prices are disposed to weaken, though our quotations are nominally given at 55@60 cents per bushel.

FEED.—The stock in the market is not large, and prices are firm at $15 per ton, and $30@32 for chops and middlings.

HAY.—There is a lessened demand, and the market is dull at $20 for timothy and $12@12 for wild.

BUTTER.—The market is dull, and for all except choice dairy there is but little call at 20@30c. For the latter the demand is good at former quotations.

Other products unchanged.

Markets

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Flour—600 bbls Starr's extra and 400 bbls Imperial extra at current rates.

Wheat—No sales worth reporting. Good to choice, $2@2 10.

The Boston Shipping List, December 28th, says the Wool market remains quiet, but firm for desirable lots of foreign and domestic. Holders are indifferent about selling, and awaiting an advance of prices and a more active market. The Flour trade here is confined chiefly to supply the local demand, a considerable portion of which is furnished by Oregon at $6a6 25 ℔ bbl.

Shipping Intelligence.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 11.—Three more vessels cleared with grain yesterday, and will probably sail to-day. They are the bark Pearl, ship Carrie Reed and ship Orama.

The screw steamer Pelican is reported sold for $55,000

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
COUGHS HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA,
Sore Throat, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Liver Complaint, Bronchitis, Asthma, Bleeding of the Lungs, and every affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, are speedily and permanently cured by the use of
DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.
This well known preparation does not dry up a cough and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most medicines, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
Consumption Can be Cured
by a timely resort to this standard remedy, as is proved by hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. None genuine unless signed I. BUTTS, SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Proprietors, Boston. Sold by REDINGTON, HOSTETTER & CO., San Francisco, and by dealers generally.

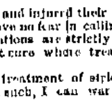
To Sufferers:
THE ABOVE ESTABLISHMENT HAS BEEN opened for the treatment of all Chronic and Private Diseases, in males as well as females, where all who are suffering from any of those dreadful ailments can find relief.
Young men having weakened and injured their constitutions by secret habits, need have no fear in calling and consulting me, as all communications are strictly confidential, and sure of a permanent cure where treatment is followed.
Special attention given to the treatment of stricture, and to all who are suffering from such, I can warrant a cure.
Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Piles, Dropsy, Cancers, and all other chronic ailments successfully treated.
To Ladies who are dragging out a life of misery, on account of debility, sterility, menstruation, and many other diseases peculiar to the sex, can find relief by calling.
The celebrated FEMALE REGULATOR PILLS sent free by mail to any address on receipt of $5 00 per box. Certain and safe in all cases.
Office consultation free of charge. All communications strictly confidential. Office hours, 11 A. M. to 4. P. M., and 7 to 9 P. M. DR. C. G. GLASS.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.
Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.
Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.
All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.
Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco, Post Office Box 1,957.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.
Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian

To Whom It may Concern.

WHEREAS, UNDER THE LAW, AS DECIDED BY the Circuit Court of the United States in the case of L. H. Wyman vs Geo. W. Vaughn the title to a considerable number of lots in the east half of the donation land claim of D. H. Lownsdale, in this city, might be disturbed; therefore notice is hereby given that all persons holding lots within the limits of said east half, by or under conveyances executed by said D. H. Lownsdale, after the 27th of September, 1850; and all holding by or under conveyances executed by him in person before that date, with covenants for title subsequently acquired; can have confirmatory deeds from the heirs of said D. H. Lownsdale, without charge, upon application therefor, the applicants paying the expense of searching the records and making deeds.

ADVERTISING
Has created many a new business;
Has enlarged many an old business;
Has revived many a dull business;
Has rescued many a lost business;
Has saved many a failing business;
Has preserved many a large business;
And insures success in any business.

GIRARD'S SECRET.—Stephen Girard used to say in his old age: "I have always considered advertising liberally and long to be the great medium of success in business, and the prelude to wealth. And I have made it an invariable rule to advertise in dull times as well as the busiest, long experience having taught me that money thus spent is well laid out, as by continually keeping my business before the public it has secured many sales that I otherwise would have lost."
